SPAAMFAA INFORMATION: The Florida Antique Bucket Brigade is a regional chapter of the National Society for the Preservation of Antique Motor Fire Apparatus in America (SPAAMFAA). Founded in 1958, SPAAMFAA is an international, educational, historical and non-profit society incorporated in the State of New York and registered with the New York State Board of Regents. The Society is dedicated to preserving, restoring, and operating the fire fighting apparatus that is part of our history. Although national membership is not necessary for participation in the regional chapter, we strongly recommend our members become members of, or maintain their membership in SPAAMFAA.
